THIRD SUNDAY OF ADVENT (A) JUBILEE YEAR - 'Pilgrims of Hope'

Sunday, 14 December 2025

Spiritual Reflection:

Faith isn't always a bright glowing light but rather a faint flicker to which we cling. We walk by faith and by sight and perceive God as in a mirror, dimly and only in part. The truth is that, for many, faith is lived in a fog of darkness and is often put to the test. As the Catechism of the Catholic Church so eloquently expresses it: 'The world we live in often seems very far from the one promised us by faith. Our experiences of evil and suffering, injustice and death, seem to contradict the Good News; they can shake our faith and become a temptation against it'.

This was the experience of John the Baptist as he languished in Herod's prison. As he awaited his fate, this great forerunner of the Lord, the last Old Testament prophet, probably shackled and no doubt hungry and tired, succumbed to doubt and uncertainty. Needing reassurance, he sent his disciples to ask the Lord, 'Are you the one who is to come, or should we expect someone else?' Jesus pointed to his miracles and the power of God as signs that he is the Messiah, the Lord's anointed.

Even John the Baptist, this outstanding herald of faith, wavered as his faith was tested. Nevertheless, Jesus held him up as the greatest man ever born while in the very next breath asserting that even the very least in Jesus' kingdom is greater than this giant of faith. Clinging to Jesus through the ups and downs of life, the times of challenge and testing, the periods of darkness and near despair, is what makes even the least in the kingdom great. Faith we learn, it what most pleases God: faith in his Son Jesus.

During this holy season of Advent, we turn to the great witnesses of faith: to St. John the Baptist, to Abraham, our father in faith, who believed against hope, to Mary our Mother who often walked her pilgrimage in the light of faith, and many others.

‘Maranatha, Come Lord Jesus!’

A VERY BIG THANK YOU!

A VERY BIG THANK YOU: To the whole parish community for the incredible response to our Parish Bazaar once again this year. So many people were involved with the Bazaar, and it ran like clockwork. This is when a parish truly comes together and is united. It was lovely to see so many of our parishioners who came and supported all our efforts. I will not single out any individual, but my thanks to the Bazaar Committee, and all the stall holders who worked so hard on the day. The final total raised was £10,300, which is incredible, THANK YOU!

OUTSTANDING GRAND DRAW PRIZES TO BE COLLECTED: If you were a winner of one of the Grand Draw Prizes at the Bazaar, you should have been contacted by now, your prize is available for collection from Clergy House.

TODAY IS GAUDETE SUNDAY: and marks the mid-way point of our Holy Advent Season. The word 'Gaudete' means to 'Rejoice', and we look forward in anticipation, rejoicing that the Saviour Jesus Christ will be born for us once again this Christmas. This is such a beautiful time of the year, as we prepare for Christmas. We are given the great mission to be able to 'Prepare the Way for the Lord', just like John the Baptist did. We can do this in so many ways in our homes and in our lives. Don't let this Advent Season pass you by and do nothing!

ADVENT PARISH PENITENTIAL SERVICE:
Thursday, 18th December at 7.30pm (please note amended date).

In preparation for Christmas, it is customary for all Roman Catholics to celebrate the Sacrament of Reconciliation. There will be several priests available to celebrate the Sacrament of Reconciliation. I strongly urge all Catholic parishioners to avail themselves of the Sacrament before Christmas.

NINE LESSONS AND CAROLS SERVICE will take place in the Cathedral on Sunday, 21st December at 4.00 p.m. A celebration of prayers, readings and carols presided by Bishop Alan Williams. With music by the Brentwood Cathedral Choir. Please do join us for this very special celebration.

FLOWERS FOR CHRISTMAS: At present there are no flowers in the Cathedral during Advent, but we always like to make a big show for Christmas. There will be a voluntary retiring collection after all Masses this weekend for Christmas flowers. Also, if any family would like to purchase a Poinsettia in memory of deceased loved ones, these will be placed to adorn the crib, please drop them off from the 4th Sunday of Advent onwards 21st December. Any flower donations can also be Gift Aided, kindly ensure that you use your GA number when donating.
