SECOND SUNDAY OF ADVENT (A) JUBILEE YEAR - 'Pilgrims of Hope'

Sunday, 7 December 2025

Spiritual Reflection:

Once again, the phrase 'the kingdom of heaven' features in our reading. If we are to understand this phrase as a sort of shorthand summary standing for 'the place where the Father's will is being done', then our reading today can be seen to continue teaching us the steps of the journey of placing ourselves under the Father's will.

John the Baptist's message was a call to repentance: 'Repent, for the kingdom of heaven is close at hand.' It is as if he was saying: 'We are on the very edge of really letting ourselves live under the Father's will. But there is a big obstacle. We need to repent!' When it comes to doing the Father's will. There is a huge obstacle - we have discussed this already when we looked at the house built on sand. The big obstacle is the power of our own self-will. But the text tells us that the people came to John to be baptised in the River Jordan, and that they were confessing their sins!

Is there a difference between the sins and self-will? Look at what John said to the Sadducees and Pharisees. He accused them of being a brood of vipers. Strong stuff! What made him use such a bitter metaphor? The image is gruesome - we cringe at images of writhing, hissing snakes.

turns us in an instant from being a happy, peaceful, kindly human being into a seething ball of reaction and anger. We are only conscious of our self-will and its power when something or someone challenges or comes up against us. Reflect for a moment on those incidences that happen in a car, or in the supermarket, or in any situation where we get upset. What is really happening? It is not that my self-will is being exposed. Suddenly, the veneer of my kindly façade is torn down and the viper is revealed. Strong stuff indeed!

Dear Friends in Jesus Christ,

I sit writing this editorial in anticipation of our annual Parish Bazaar. I would like to take this opportunity of expressing my heartfelt thanks to everyone who has helped over the past months to prepare for the Bazaar. As you can appreciate a lot of hard work goes into the preparation of such an event. It is a real family occasion for everyone. A personal thank you to the Bazaar Committee who have been working behind the scenes for the past few months. Thank you to all of our Parishioners who have donated gifts and items for all the various stalls, your generosity is amazing. I had no doubt that you would come up trumps where bottles were donated, we reached our three hundred mark! The bottle stall at a Bazaar is always a great crowd pleaser. Thank you for all the toiletries donated; toys and cuddly toys; bric-a-brac. Thank you to the Mercy Sisters who for the first time had a knitted goods stall, so grateful you could join us. Thank you to all those who baked Christmas Cakes & other cakes and pies.

A big thank you, to those who donated Grand Draw Prizes, and those who donated money for the Bazaar. Obviously, the Grand Draw with Raffle

Tickets are always a great appeal, thanks you for selling your books of tickets. Thank you to those who helped set up on Friday, and all those who helped to clear up afterwards. I pray that everyone enjoyed the Bazaar!

GRAND DRAW PRIZES: Can be collected from Clergy House throughout the coming week.

MATCHED GIVING: COULD WE MAKE A SPECIAL APPEAL FOR MATCHED GIVING? It's still not too late for help with Matched Giving from your Firm or Bank? Many companies do employ a Matched Giving facility; all you need to do is ask your place of employment; this truly would be of great benefit to us. If you work at the bazaar on a particular stall, whatever is raised is often matched by the company or bank. Please investigate it!

Right now, CAFOD's partner, Caritas Jerusalem, is delivering essential medical treatment to displaced people and providing medicines to treat chronic illnesses. We have helped 1,400 households with cash to buy supplies in the last month and we are currently feeding 2,000 people with new stocks of flour and rice. Despite the restrictions on aid coming into Gaza, CAFOD's local partners are working tirelessly to help people. And with your ongoing support, they will do all in their power to keep doing so. You can find out more about how you can make a difference in Gaza at cafod.org.uk.
